

Spelling

Story: The Mysterious
Giant of Barletta

Spelling Focus: "Vowel
+ /r/ sounds

girl
clear
her
turn
dark
work
smart
word
hurt
serve
north third

Challenge Words

tornado
scurried

Dictation Sentences:

1. The sky to the north is clear now.

Vocabulary

The following words will be covered in our reading selection this week. Please talk with your child about the meanings of these words and how they were used in the story. In order to understand what we are reading, students need to be able to recognize these words. Students will not be tested on the spelling of these words.

giant mysterious pedestal
square
statue weakling
Zia
hailed scurried
strode
weakling
dumbstruck
bellowed
ancient

2. I met a girl in a red dress who lost her book.

3. Did I spell the word right on the third try?

4. The smart baby learned to turn around.

5. All of the animals scurried into their homes before the tornado hit.

authentic

eternal

obelisk

dwarfed

custom

galleries

plazza

consequences

tumbleweed

burrow

