

THE LOST AND FOUND

furious – really angry situations – sets of conditions at certain moments in time visible – able to be seen plunged – fell quickly and suddenly suggested – offered for consideration or action examined – looked at or studied carefully armor – a metal covering worn to protect a knight in battle dismay – a feeling of upset and worry in the face of trouble burgundy – purplish-red in color fez – a cone-shaped hat with a flat top rumpled – wrinkled or creased unusual – not usual, common, or ordinary; strange directions – lines or paths along which someone or something goes, lies, points, or faces worried – concerned or anxious lectured – scolded or warned for a long period of time