

Spelling

Story: "The Lost and Found"

Spelling Focus:
Short Vowel Sounds

mix
milk
smell
last
head
friend
class
left
thick
send thin
stick

Challenge Words:

empty
glance

Dictation Sentences:

1. I will mix the eggs with my left hand.

Vocabulary

The following words will be covered in our reading selection this week. Please talk with your child about the meanings of these words and how they were used in the story. In order to understand what we are reading, students need to be able to recognize these words. Students will not be tested on the spelling of these words.

rumpled
situations
worried
visible unusual
directions
wrinkled
upset
invention
expensive
motorist
suburbs

2. The milk is cold and the cookie is thin.

3. My friend and I were late to class today.

4. He hit the ball with a stick.

5. Did you put the last note in that thick book?

Some of these words have patterns for spelling other words. Have your child list five pattern words on another piece of paper.

Example: Stick
brick, flick, click, lick, nick,

Some of these words can have different prefixes or suffixes (beginnings or endings). Have your child change the endings for:
glance
glanced, glancing, glances

pitch

rely

solar

furious

plunged

suggested

examined

armor

dismay

burgandy

fez

lectured

shocker

yearning

compute

summarize

divided

