

Spelling

Story: The Ballad of Mulan

Spelling Focus: More Short Vowels

pond

luck

drop

lot

rub

does

drum

sock

hunt

crop

shut

won

Challenge Words

dusk

dodge

Dictation Sentences:

1. We ate a lot of fish from the pond.

Vocabulary

The following words will be covered in our reading selection this week. Please talk with your child about the meanings of these words and how they were used in the story. In order to understand what we are reading, students need to be able to recognize these words. Students will not be tested on the spelling of these words.

armor

comrades

endured

farewell

triumphant

troops

victorious

sorrowful

sighs

invaders

troops

draft

scrolls

frail

2. Do not drop the dish on your sock.

3. Jack had good luck
with his crop of corn.

4. Will you help me
hunt for my dog?

5. If you play the drum, you must shut
the door.

bridle
astonished
dusk
harsh
endured
ravaged
summoned
bestow
swift
escort

