

TWO DAYS IN MAY

grazing – eating growing plants hooves – tough covering on the feet of certain animals, such as deer rumbled – moved with a deep, long, rolling sound recognized – remembered from past experience landlord – person who rents a building or property to someone hushed – quiet

solemnly – seriously starve – to suffer or die from lack of food wander – to move from place to place without having a special destination territory – an area of land protest – a gathering of people who object to something they think is wrong brow – forehead stranded – left in a helpless position surrounding – on all sides of anxiously – nervously rotate – to turn detect – to discover or notice the presence of appreciate – to enjoy and understand population – relating to the total number of people or animals living in a certain place habitat – the place where an animal or plant naturally lives and grows draped – rested lightly broad – wide rusty – old-looking, covered in rust crates – wooden boxes used for moving or sending things tranquilizer – a drug used to calm a person or animal wobbled – moved unsteadily fawns – deer that are less than one year old flickering – briefly flashing