

Spelling

Story: Trapped by the Ice

Spelling Focus: The VCCV Pattern

Monday

sudden

until

forget

happen

follow

dollar

window

hello

market

pretty

order

Challenge Words

stubborn

expect

Dictation Sentences:

1. I cannot wait until school starts on

Vocabulary

The following words will be covered in our reading selection this week. Please talk with your child about the meanings of these words and how they were used in the story. In order to understand what we are reading, students need to be able to recognize these words. Students will not be tested on the spelling of these words.

barren

crevasse

deserted

floes

grueling

impassable

perilous

terrain

startled

stern

tremble

skipper

jagged

sledge

Monday.

2. What will happen next if you follow the trail?

3. The pretty lady said hello from the window.

4. At the market you can buy some candy with your dollar.

5. You can expect to be hungry if you forget your lunch.

harnessed

current

scarce

lunged

stalking

sapped

savage

furiously

dehydration

quench

