

Spelling

Story: The Keeping Quilt

Spelling Focus: More Long Vowels

paint
clay
feel
leave
neighbor
eight
seems speak
paid
lay
need weigh

Challenge Words

needle
crayon

Dictation Sentences:

1. I will paint my house eight times.

Vocabulary

The following words will be covered in our reading selection this week. Please talk with your child about the meanings of these words and how they were used in the story. In order to understand what we are reading, students need to be able to recognize these words. Students will not be tested on the spelling of these words.

strut
glimpse unfortunate
custom
border
gathering
needles
scraps
sewn threaded
hauling artificial babushka
challah

2. We paid him for the milk and clay.

3. I went to speak with my neighbor.

4. The needle will feel very sharp.

5. Do you need to use the red crayon?

linen
handkerchief
huppa
poverty
bouquet
regions
laquer
metallic
unique
polished

