

Spelling

Story: Poppa's New Pants

Spelling Focus:
Words that begin with a or be.

begin
again
around before
away
about
alive
because ahead
about
behind
ago

Challenge Words

awhile
beyond

Dictation Sentences:

1. We will run around

Vocabulary

The following words will be covered in our reading selection this week. Please talk with your child about the meanings of these words and how they were used in the story. In order to understand what we are reading, students need to be able to recognize these words. Students will not be tested on the spelling of these words.

draped
fabric
hem
mended
pattern
plaid
rustling
uproar
bust a gusset
plum worn out
brother-in-law
arthritis
pallet
crouched

the park between the trees.

2. The dog hid behind the chair because he chewed the shoes.

3. I thought you might call again before you come on Monday.

4. Wasn't class going to begin about an hour ago?

5. Because she can run faster, Becky is ahead of me in the race.

wheezed
mustered dozed off
armadillo
limbs

smiling fit to beat the band haunting scurried

sanctuary
knickers
inhabited

